

It should be up to the public what they want not how the government can control this issue. If people use local radio or their xm radio to listen to weather or traffic it should not matter it is their choice!